From a 'Dusty Corner'It's a Team Effort

SVTOS is not a large organization, but we have a lot going on. And it takes a crew of dedicated people to handle it all. So let's take time out to give a big THANK YOU to the folks who serve with me on the Leadership Team.

As VP and Program Chair, Ken Kline convened a group to plan the year's programs and he also schedules members to play for the movies.

Roy Wainwright is both newsletter editor and web master. Check out some of the many new additions he has made to the web site.

Emmitte Miller keeps track of every penny in the treasury as he has for many years.

Herb Inge keeps our membership records up to date and collects the dues each year.

Terry Nace is a founding member of SVTOS and continues as our chief organ technician.

Don Kinnier, along with Judy Townsend, hosts our hospitality corner at each meeting. Don also has many other roles such as mentor, equipment manager and concert artist.

Larry Fenner and Barry Howard are hard at work preparing for our October 9 public concert featuring Ken Double and Skip Stine.

Sam Groh is a Past President and continues to serve as our liaison with The Masonic Village. He also handles the production and sale of our newest CD.

Don Schoeps, along with his wife Nancy, are planning another public concert for April, 2012.

Gary Coller is also a Past President with lots of good ideas to share.

My most sincere thanks to each of you, Dusty

President Dusty Miller presented Distinguished Service Awards to Emmitte Miller and Roy Wainwright for their continuing work as Treasurer and Newsletter Editor, respectively.

Review of our CD "A Capitol Idea"

The May/June "Theatre Organ" arrived today with Dennis Hedberg's review of "A Capitol Idea." Mr. Hedberg gave the CD 3½ stars out of 5, which isn't too shabby compared to some of his past reviews. YEA! -Larry Fenner
